6:30-6:32 Welcome: Dan Taylor, Union Park Board President

6:32-6:45 Remarks by special guests

Mitra Jalali-Nelson, City Councilmember Representing Ward 4

Mitra Jalali Nelson was sworn in as the newest member of the Saint Paul City Council in September 2018 to represent Ward 4. She has worked as a classroom teacher, community organizer, policy aide and congressional staffer. Councilmember Nelson also serves on the board of the Family Housing Fund, the intergovernmental Joint Property Tax Advisory Committee, Ramsey County Dispatch and is the co-chair of the 2020 U.S. Census Complete Count initiative for Ramsey County. Her priorities in office include attainable and affordable housing and homeownership, community-first public safety and police accountability, sustainability and transit, and community wealth through economic development.

Dai Thao, City Councilmember Representing Ward 1

Councilmember Dai Thao is proudly serving his 5th year on the Saint Paul City Council representing Ward 1. He serves on the St. Paul Library Board, the Saint Paul Housing and Redevelopment Authority Board, Family Housing Fund Board, Twin Cities Land Bank Board and the St. Paul Port Authority. His policy priorities are to increase youth employment, public safety, economic vitality and affordable housing, and government accountability.
